Bnd Hogsett, Rube Auldridge
and Lace Stewart are off to Cranberry fishing.

In a recent issue of The Marlinton Messenger we noticed that a Millpoint correspondent states that Miss Florence Ervin and Tony Bee attempted to run away a few Sundays ago. This is a bad mistake. On the Sunday mentioned Miss Irvine, together with quite a number of Millpoint people went out for a walk and there was no one with the crowd by the name of Bee and as I was with the crowd I know that the report is as false as sin. We hope that the correspondent will be a little careful and know what he is writing before he writes another letter for publication.

Sunday at 3 p. m. and will be held at that hour each Sunday. We hope the people generally will come out and help to make it interesting, and bring all the children for a Sunday school can not be a success unless the children of the neighborhood will take part. Let each one do his or her share and I know it will be a success.

The farmers are beginning to get something done now as we have had a few nice days. Most done sowing oats and some are ready to plant corn.

T. W. Hogsett has put up some wire fence and repaired the old one around his lot.

W. McClintic and Marvin S. Smith have gone to Indiana and Illinois to buy a blooded stallion
